How to Make

step 1: gather supplies

- self-stick adhesive felt pads
- essential oils -- You can just use one essential oil or a blend of several essential oils. Some suggested recipes are given in the next step.

step 2: add 3-5 drops of essential oil to each felt pad

Here are some essential oils and blends you might want to try. Feel free to customize with your favorite oils and blends.

- 4 drops lemon essential oil
- 3 drops eucalyptus essential oil + 2 drops spearmint essential oil
- 2 drops bergamot + 2 drops sweet orange + 1 drop lemon
- 1 drop tea tree (melaleuca) + 1 drop lemon + 1 drop lime
- 1 drop lemongrass + 1 drop lavender + 1 drop eucalyptus
- 3 drops sweet orange essential oil + 2 drops peppermint essential oil

step 3: remove the paper and stick the felt pads anywhere that needs deodorizing and freshening tip: Here are just some of the places you might want to try:

- trash cans
- pantry
- kitchen drawers
- clothes drawers
- shoe bins
- closets
- recycling bins
- cupboards
- totes with seasonal holiday decorations
- laundry hamper tip: The essential oil scent should last at least a few days or longer. When you need to renew the scent, simply add a few more drops of essential oil to the felt pad. If the felt pad is on a vertical surface, place a kleenex below the felt pad to catch any essential oil drips. If you do have any drips on the tissue, you can put the tissue in a drawer or bin to scent and deodorize the space. "Waste not, want not" as my grandma used to say.
